5. Guidelines:

Internship is very different from any regular job. However, over a period of time it will generate a pool of young minds especially oriented to accept new challenges and problems encountered in achieving the goals of poverty monitoring and policy support unit.
• This is a volunteer service plan of PPSUS, no honorarium will be paid during the internship.
• Applications in prescribed form (See Annexure) displayed on the website of the PMPSUS that is http://mpplanningcommission.gov.in/pmppsu.htm. A no objection certificate from Head of the Department / Senior Faculty of the institution where the student is pursuing his study would be essential.
• All these applications will be scrutinized and the actual offer will be sent to the selected candidates subject to the availability of slot, matching PMPSUS requirement and approval of the competent authority. Maximum number of slots to be offered to these students shall not exceed 10 at any point of time.
• Shortlisted applicants will be called for a presentation before a committee consisting of three specialists nominated by the Nodal Officer or Team Leader, Poverty Monitoring and Policy Support Unit who would identify the specific areas of study its modalities and an Action Plan as agreed by the Internee. Subject to availability of funds and the priority for the study the Team Leader PPSUS /Nodal Officer PPSUS will take a final decision on the recommendations of the Committee of three Specialists.
• The selected Interns would be attached with different Specialists of PPSUS keeping in view the areas of interest expressed by the candidates and as per the unit's requirements.
• These Interns will be required to present a detail report/paper at the end of their assignment to Specialist, PPSUS highlighting their observations and the suggestions, if any.
• The PPSUS will have the Intellectual Property Rights on the data collected, findings and all other outcomes of the projects undertaken by the internee. The contribution made by an internee in such studies will be duly acknowledged. However, no part of the foregoing components would be used elsewhere without prior written permission of the Nodal Officer or Team Leader, PMSUS on the recommendations of the Committee of Specialists.
• Certificates will be issued to the Internees after successful completion of the study at the end of their internship.

5. To Apply;
• The interested candidate may send their applications in the enclosed Performa along with their CVs (optional) at least two month in advance from the date they intend to join.
• The candidate will be required to produce a permission letter from their Supervisor or Head of Department, in case he/she is interested to join internship not during holidays.
